SECOND---THE EMLL

RESULTS

SUNDAY, AUGUST 18, 1991

At el Plaza Monumental de los Toros in Monterrey, Nuevo Leon

1. Stuka lost his mask in the triangular de la muerte which also had el Hijo del Santo and Pedro "el Perro" Aguayo.
2. CMLL World Heavyweight Championship Match: Challenger Cien Caras defeated champion Konnan el Barbaro to falls to one with the considerable help of referee el Gran Davis.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 23, 1991

At la Arena Mexico in Mexico City, D. F.

Note: las Saetas del Ring (la Aguila Solitaria, el Pantera II, and Ciclon Ramirez) versus la Plaga del Ring (Ponzona, Enjambre, and Marabunta): no result given.

1. los Hermanos Guerrero (CHavo, Mando, and Eddy) defeated los Infernales (M S 1, Masakre, and el Satanico) two falls to one in a total elapsed time of 19:05.
 - 1: Chavo made Satanico submit to a Gory Especial (Argentinian back breaker) in 8:38.
 - 2: Satanico made CHavo submit to a head lock in 3:52.
 - 3: CHavo pinned Satanico in 6:35 after Satanico had been given an off-the-top-rope dropkick by Eddy and an off-the-top-rop-diving-body-press by Mando.

Notes: Easily the best match of the night. The first fall was all Guerreros with leg locks on the Infernales; the second fall was all head locks by the Infernales on the Guerreros. The third fall was more normal and very crisp. They had some near falls and switched spots at the last moment some too. 1/4.

2. Ringo Mendoza, el Dandy, and Apolo Dantes defeated los Canibales I and II and la Bestia Salvaje falls to zero in a total elapsed time of 16:17.
 - 1: All three tecnicos pinned Salvaje in 9:57 with an inside cradle (they otched it up).
 - 2: los Canibales were disqualified in 6:20 for using the bones on el Dandy.

Notes: los Canibales were the Moondogs (I believe Latham & Smithson. This was by no means very good but not so bad as I had feared. Salvaje tried real hard and Dantes did a nice dive off the top corner onto Dantes. Nagasaki did very little but Dandy wa over big as ususal. How about giving los Canibales such a big buildup in the papers for over a month and then they do a two-straight-fall-job in their first match in. *3/4.

3. Noticicentro de la Lucha Libre:

- 1: Stuka loses mask
- 2: Cien Caras wins CMLL title
- 3: Zuleyma retains UWA title
- 4: Zuleyma interview

4. Interview with el Pirata Morgan.

5. Kendo Nagasaki, el Pirata Morgan, and Pierroth junior defeated Atlantis, Octagon, and la Mascara Sagrada two falls to one in a total elapsed time of 12:51.

- 1: Kendo pinned Octagon with a big choke hold in 4:15.
- 2: Sagrada pinned Kendo with an inside cradle in 4:21.
- 3: Morgan pinned Sagrada clean with the senton in 4:15.

Notes: Well, the result of the third fall should tell you we are in for a Morgan hair versus Sagrada mask match real soon. I think they will have a single match next week with no stipulations. Atlantis did the Asai moonsault dive from off the second rope outside of the ring to end the second fall (which tells me immediately that the heels are winning the third fall). Nice brawling after the match as Raul Sarmiento was trying to interview Morgan and Sagrada. The sentonb at the end came when Sagrada did the Muto moonsault and Morgan moved and Sagrada took it face first. Ouch. Nothing great about the match, though. **.

6. Cartometro del Ring:

- 10: Fuerza Guerrera
- 9: el Dandy
- 8: Kato Kung Lee I
- 7: el Rayo de Jalisco junior
- 6: Cien Caras
- 5: Lizmark
- 4: Atlantis
- 3: Konnan el Barbaro
- 2: Casanova el Vampiro Canadiense
- 1: Octagon

7. Konnan el Barbaro, Casanova el Vampiro Canadiense, and el Rayo de Jalisco junior defeated Pedro "el Perro" Aguayo, Cien Caras, and Nitron two falls to zero in a total elapsed time of 9:17.

- 1: All three technicians pinned Nitron with a body press in 3:12.

- 2: Referee Roberto "el Guero" Rangel stopped the match at 6:05, ruling Aguayo was unable to continue because all other five wrestlers were beating on him unmercilessly.

Notes: Everybody turned on Aguayo. As a match, this was technically better than the last two weeks, but still very strange. No doubt Aguayo is turning face, but is Konnan turning heel? I thought sure he'd turn on el Rayo de Jalisco junior when Rayo was bent over saying "no more, Aguayo's had enough," but it didn't happen. As a match, I rate this *1/2, but Cien Caras versus Perro Aguayo will be a big feud for them over the next three months.

4. Mestizo versus Super Gallo.

NEWS AND NOTES

1. The card 8/21/91 at el Auditorio Benito Juarez in Veracruz, Veracruz, Mexico, was cancelled, with no reason given, by the syndicate. Those luchadores scheduled to appear INCLUDED Atlantis, Lizmark, Mano Negra, Javier Cruz, Apolo Dantes, Angel Blanco junior, Kung Fu, Mascarita Sagrada, M S 1/2, Octagoncito, Ringuito Mendoza, Espectrito, Piratita Morgan, and Gran Davis, among others.
2. The card 8/19/91 at la Arena Isabel in Leon, Guanajuato, had a double no-show in the scheduled main event. It seems that Casanova el Vamiro Canadiense and el Hijo de Lizmark were among those booked in a six-man tag on top, and they both simply skipped the card, leaving some very unhappy promoters and fans.
3. Pierroth junior has challenged la Mascara Sagrada (again) to a Mexican National Light Heavyweight Title match.
4. Since Ciclon Ramirez has not had a title defense in over ninety days (of his Mexican National Welterweight Title), he's being criticized in OVACIONES for being a closet champion. They then criticized Octagon (Mexican National Middleweight Champion) for the same fault.

5. OVACIONES also ragged on the CMLL for not starting a second world championship tournament yet nor releasing the traditional monthly top ten rankings.
6. Ruben Garcia, ex-el Huracan Ramirez junior, got a nice write-up in OVACIONES.
7. Kahos I/Kahos II/el Rey Halcon begin their official career as a full time trio this week for the UWA. Their name will be "el Triangulo de la Muerte," or "The Death Triangle."
8. For no apparent reason, Scorpio and Scorpio junior have gotten big writeups in the newspapers lately. On 8/22/91, ESTO, Mexico's number one sports daily, which has a daily column in the entertainment section on Lucha Libre (by ex-commissioner Enrique Llanes, father of Javier Llanes), profiled los Scorpions at great length; then on 8/23/91, LA PRENSA, Mexico's leading tabloid daily, gave los Scorpions a two page write-up AND A FULL-PAGE COLOR PHOTOGRAPH! The news is that Scorpio senior will be going to Japan in November, although I do not know for which group yet. OVACIONES profiled the father and son last week. In the article, Scorpio claims to have traveled to Japan in 1980 to wrestle Tiger Mask for a world title.
9. el Misterioso has decide to forego major reconstructive knee surgery for at least the time being, and he has had arthroscopic knee surgery instead. He is already scheduled to return to the ring in the semifinal of the card in Celaya, Guanajuato, on 8/24/91, noted above.
10. WEEKLY PRO in Japan had a story on the debut of el Hijo del Solitario, saying his debut on a Sunday night card drew 18,000 fans; if this is true (I don't see any reason why it shouldn't be) then he is already in his first month one of the EMLL's hottest draws and one of the hottest draws for a rookie in a long long time---if he can keep it up.
11. Konnan el Barbaro and Casanova el Vampiro Canadiense have been signed for very small speaking roles in yet another Mexican movie. Filming on one of the Atlantis-and-Octagon movies is also moving along smoothly.
12. el Celestial has challenged Pedro "el Perro" Aguayo to a UWA World Junior Light Heavyweight Title match.
13. Konnan el Barbaro and Paco Alonso were both headed to Summer Slam in New York.
